

About The Surgeon & Clinic:

1. How many years of experience do you have as a Plastic Surgeon?
2. How many breast augmentation procedures have you done?
3. What are the most common complications that your patients have had? And how were they handled?
4. Do you have a "before" and "after" photo album for this procedure?
5. What type of implants do you use – saline or silicone? What is your experience with each type?
6. What is your reoperation rate?
7. Where will the surgery be conducted?
8. Is the clinic prepared and certified to assist liposuction surgeries?
9. Do you have a licensed anesthetist on board?

About The Breast Augmentation Surgery:

1. Am I a good candidate?
2. What can I expect after the surgery?
3. What precautions would I need to take pre-surgery and post-surgery?
4. How many days will I take to recover fully?
5. What should I do for a quick recovery?
6. Will the shape and appearance of my body change over time? If yes, how?
7. What are the risks involved in this procedure?
8. What treatment option/ technique will be used for me?
9. Where will my scar be?
10. How long will the procedure take?
11. How soon will I be able to resume my normal activities at home and work?
12. What are the chances or situations in which I will need a reoperation?

About Breast Implants and Expected Results:

1. What is the nature, type & quality of implants that will be used – what shape, size and texture, and why?
2. How long will my implants last?
3. How will my breasts change over time?
4. What are realistic results for my specific case?
5. How will the implants feel?
6. How will pregnancy impact my implants?
7. How will the surgery impact my ability to breastfeed?
8. How will my cleavage change?
9. How easy is it to remove the implants?
10. How will my breasts change if I remove the implants?
11. How will I know my implants are intact and have not ruptured?
12. What ongoing care do I need to take of the implants?
13. What additional follow-ups will I need?
14. Will I be able to get mammograms or breast ultrasounds with implants? Will the results be accurate?
15. Can the size of the implants be increased or reduced in subsequent surgeries?